CENTER FOR CREATIVE PHOTOGRAPHY

Conditions for Publication of Photographs by Rollie McKenna

The reproductions may not be cropped, bled off the page, overprinted with text, or altered in any way.

Reproduction prints and transparencies are provided for one-time reproduction purposes only and must be returned by the Center for Creative Photography within 30 days of publication.

Scans of photographs acquired for one-time reproduction purposes may not be digitally archived by the publisher. All derivative digital copies of transparencies or image files provided must be deleted from the publisher's files once the publication layout itself has been designed and archived. CD media provided to the publisher must be returned to the Center for Creative Photography within 30 days of publication.

Two copies of the publication in which the photographs are reproduced must be sent to Rights and reproductions at the Center for Creative Photography upon release.

Full documentation and photographer credit must appear either adjacent to the reproduction, on the page facing, or page verso as follows:
