DESCRIPTION

Lantern slides, 1887 - 1902, of photographs by Frederick H. Evans (1853 - 1943), Paul Martin, Harold Brooke, and P.H.N. Also includes 41 page typescript, with handwritten corrections, of Evans' lecture notes for his "Lincoln Cathedral" lantern slide presentation, and 76 miscellaneous slides by Evans and others in two wooden boxes. The slides are images of Lincoln Cathedral, landscapes, street scenes, and other cathedrals chiefly in England.
3 linear feet.

PROVENANCE

These lantern slides were purchased from the Witkin Gallery in 1980.

PROCESSING NOTE

Processed Summer 1984 by Judith Leckrone. Electronic version of the finding aid was prepared by Amy Rule, June 1998.

Slides for lecture note entries numbers 34, 69, and 80 were not located. Entries numbers 23, 33, 56, and 67 were not used.

ORGANIZATION

The first box contains typescript lecture notes "Lincoln Cathedral," which were photocopied by Center staff for use by patrons. Box 2 was left in its original order with photographs by others first, followed by slides made by Evans. Box 3 and 4 contain the slides for the "Lincoln Cathedral" lecture and are arranged to accompany the lecture notes; additional slides of Lincoln Cathedral follow these.
